The Morning Call, Allentown, PA

4/3/1998

A Coopersburg company that restores and repairs equipment used by the semiconductor industry has been awarded a loan from the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Association that will help them buy the land and building they have been leasing. Rhetech, Inc. also will use the money to expand, hiring an additional 31 employees over the next three years. PIDA provided $560,000 for the $1.4 million project, according to the Lehigh Valley Economic Development Corp.
